VOL. CXV. No. 169. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1914. PRICE 2 CENTS

CARBAJAL NAMED NEW PRESIDENT

Huerta's Resignation Accepted by a Vote of 121 to 17.

WILL FLEE COUNTRY

Former Dictator Greeted with Cheers as He Proceeds to National Palace After Abdication.

Mexico City, July 16.—The bloody reign of General Victoriano Huerta is at an end, and today a commission is enroute to Celaya, there to endeavor to arrange for the peaceful entrance of the constitutionalists into the capital.

Francisco Carbajal, the new provisional President, today faces the delicate task of placating a dozen different factions, forming a provisional cabinet, and preserving peace in the capital until the constitutionalists have assumed control and a government capable of guaranteeing peace to the entire nation is established.

Vera Cruz, July 16.—Although bent to President Wilson's will and forced from his place as head of the Mexican government, taken over the body of Francisco I. Madero. General Huerta remained the stolid Indian to thel ast.

It was only through the greatest pressure that he was forced to loosen the bulldog hold he had taken upon the Presidency. Blanquet threatened, it is said, to resign, take his army with him and place Huerta under arrest.

General Huerta started the drinking bout on Saturday. It ended only when he left the capital. It began immediately after the appointment of Francisco Carbajal as minister of foreign relations, according to information which has come to me from the capital. The dictator went to the Cafe Colon, where he spent his time drinking until far into the night. Arising early Sunday morning and ordering that his bodyguard should not follow him, the dictator passed the entire day drinking at the Cafes Chapultepec and El Globo.

Mexico City, July 16.—Gen. Victoriano Huerta resigned from the provisional presidency of the Mexican republic yesterday evening and his resignation was accepted by the Senate and Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 121 to 17.

Francisco Carbajal was then appointed President and took the oath of office at the joint session of deputies and senators.

Huerta and Blanquet, together with the former ministers of communications and public instruction, also several other officials and personal friends of the former dictator, left Mexico City in automobiles tonight. They went directly to Los Reyes station on the Interoceanic Railway, about sixteen miles from Mexico City, where they boarded a special train. This train carried an escort of federal troops.

The train's destination has been kept secret. It is known that the party had perfected arrangements to to go to any one of several points, and it is believed they themselves did not reach a definite decision as to their destination until Los Reyes was reached.

The text of Huerta's resignation is as follows:

"Deputies and Senators: Public necessity, admitted by the Chamber of Deputies, by the Senate and the Supreme Court, called me to the supreme magistracy of the republic. Later, when in this same hall I had the honor of addressing you in compliance with the constitutional precept, I promised at all costs to bring about peace.

"Seventeen months have passed, and in that brief period of time I have formed an army with which to carry out that solemn promise.

'You all know the immense difficulties with my government has encountered, owing to a scarcity of question sought a pretext to intervene directy in this conflict, and the funds, as well as to the manifest and decided protection which a greater power of this continent has afforded to the rebels—so much so that when the revolution has been broken up, seeing that its chief leaders were and continued to be advised, the power in result of this was the outrage committed at Vera Cruz by the American fleet.

"Success was had, as you know, in adjusting honorably through our delegates at Niagara Falls the petty Tampico incident, but the revolution continued, with the support of whom we all know.

"Yet after the highly patriotic work achieved by our delegates at Niagara Falls, there are still some who say that I, come what may, seek my personal interest and not that of the republic. And as I need to rebut this allegation with facts, I tender my formal resignation of the presidency of the republic.

"The national congress must know that the republic, through its government, has labored in entire good faith and with the fullest energy, having succeeded in doing away with the party which in the United States calls itself Democratic, and having shown how the right should be defended.

"To be more explicit, I will say that the action of the government of the republic during its short life has dealth deathbows to an unjust power. Later on stronger workers will come, using implements that undoubtedly will end that power, which has done so much harm and committed so many outrages on this continent.

"In conclusion I will say that I abandon the presidency of the republic, carrying with me the highest sum of human wealth, for I declare that I have arraigned at the bar of universal conscience the honor of a puritan, whom I, as a gentleman, challenge to wrest from me that possession.

"May God bless you and me."

NEWS OF THE DAY

Seven death sentences for murder were affirmed by the New York Court of Appeals in opinions made public yesterday. Those who must die are Joseph J. McKenna, of New York, who killed Sigred Eckstrom, 8 years old, by choking her; End King and Lee Dock, Chinese, who murdered Lee Kay in Mott street New York, in 1912; William Bressen, who shot Patrolman Thomas Wynn in Brooklyn, March 6, 1914; Guisippe Digiola, who caused the death of George Gillespie, in Buffalo, October 7, 1913; Michael Sarzano, who killed Saverio Grandanello, in Buffalo, November, 17, 1912, and George Coyer, who murderd his wife at Cattaurugus, July 14, 1914.

Busy all day in an effort to locate the man who stole $1,700 in bills from James Andreas, a fruit dealer, rooming at 106 C street northeast, Washington, central office detectives had a $2,000 robbery added yesterday to their list of unsolved mysteries. Miss E. T. Sullivan, of 1519 Thirty-first street northwest, reported the loss of $2,000 from her purse while on a street car. Drawing the money from bank, Miss Sullivan put it in her hand bag, and in getting off the car she noticed the satchel was open and the roll gone. Mrs. F. P. Wood, of Lynchburg, Va., was robbed of a purse containing $25 in cash and a check for $15 at Union Station. She entered the phone booth and, forgetting her number, left the purse in the booth while she looked into the telephone directory. When she returned to the booth the purse was gone.

Struck by the Interstate Special, the crack train of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, two men, both foreigners, were ground to death beneath the wheels of the train at Belcamp Station, near Joppa, Harford county, Md., late yesterday afternoon. Eight other men narrowly escaped death.

A savage attack was made upon Thomas McKinnon Wood, M. P. secretary of state for Scotland, by two suffragettes as he was leaving his residence yesterday. The statesman was lashed on the head and shoulders with dogwhips, and long welts were left on his cheeks. A policeman on a nearby beat ran upon the scene, followed by two others. The women fought savagely before they were placed under arrest.

PHILADELPHIA HIT BY STORM

One Man Killed and Several Hurt by Bolts of Lightning.

CHURCHES STRUCK

Streets Flooded, Sewers Burst and Great Darkness Causes Consternation Throughout City.

Philadelphia, July 15.—Bolts of lightning and torrents of rain caused death and injury fire and flood all over Philadelphia during a terrific electric storm which swept the city yesterday afternoon. Out of skies that were black as night with low-hanging clouds, came binding flashes of lightning, striking men and women, church steeples, flagpoles and houses, accompanied by such terrible cracks of thunder as to frighten the most hardy. One man was killed and several injured by the bolts. At the same time rain fell as if from a cloudburst, flooding sewers in a few moments, sweeping along lowlying streets, filling cellars, blocking cars, undermining poles and caving in sewers.

During the half hour between 1:30 and 2 o'clock the city was a place of terror. Day was suddenly turned into night by the inkness of the clouds. The flashes of lightning and crashes of thunder seemed always near. Every chooked flash seemed to be striking close at hand and every thunderous rumble seemed right at every hearer's ears. The rain came down as if the ocean's bottom was overhead and vast seas had broken through.

The storm was the [illegible] storm of its kind in a number of years and probably the most awe [illegible] ever witnessed in this vici[illegible]

Struck by a bolt of lightning as he was riding on a [illegible] freight train at Fifty-seventh street, an unidentified man was hurled from the car and ground to death beneath the wheels. His body was found later, badly mangled, but still containing the black mark which showed where the lightning hit him.

There was nothing on his clothing by which he could be identified.

Two churches were struck by lightning. A bolt hit the square tower over Temple Lutheran Church, Fifty-second and Race streets, knocking off two of the four minarets standing on each corner of the tower. These minarets were chunks of granite, each weighing several hundred pounds. They fell from the steeple with a tremendous noise, one of them crashing down upon the church steps and shattering them. The other block was hurled far out into the street, striking near the car tracks and splitting into thousands of pieces.

A number of pedestrians hurrying along Fifty-second street in the rain, narrowly missed being struck by the falling blocks of stone.

The Tenth Baptist Church, at Nineteenth and Master streets, was also struck. A bolt hit the corner of the roof and sent a shower of slate into the street. The understructure of wood caught fire from the lightning, but the blaze was speedily extinguished.

While he was attending a woman who had been struck by lightnig, Dr. Anthony Esposido, of the West Philadelphia Homeopathetic Hospital, was truck himself yesetrday in the accident ward of the institution. Miss Catherine Conway, had been stunned by a bolt while at work in the Overbrook Carpet Mill. She was carried to the hospital and Dr. Esposido hastened to attend her.

He was hard at work trying to restore consciousness to the stricken woman when there came a sudden flash of lightning through the hospital window. It struck the young physician on th arm, hurling him across the room. The terrible crash of thunder which followed frightened the nurses so badly that they rushed from the room. They returned in an instant however, and found the doctor staggering to his feet. He paid no attention to his own half-numbed arm, but went right to work on the unconscious woman, who was not restored to her senses for three hours.

The storm was severe in Germantown and other places in Pennsylvania.

WOMAN KILLS HER FATHER.

Acquitted by Coroner's Jury on Verdict of Justifiable Homicide.

Whigham, Ga., July 16.—Mrs. Clifford Griffin, twenty-four years old, daughter of H. Preston P. Howe, a widely known Grady County farmer, who was found in his bed Friday morning dead from a gunshot wound, told a coroner's jury Saturday that she had slain her father, as he slept, because of repeated attacks on her.

She declared that her father had attacked her and had come to her room after midnight Friday. She followed him to his room, she said, and when he slept fired into the back of his skull with a shotgun, killing him instantly.

Mrs. Griffin was acquitted on a verdict of justifiable homicide, and her brother, Howard Powe, aged eighteen, who had been arrested, was released.

CHARGED WITH ARSON.

Bishop And Others of A. M. E. Zion Church Arrested.

Asheville, N. C., July 16.—True bills charging arson, have been returned by the Buncombe county grand jury against Bishop C. R. Harris and others of the Second Episcopal district of the A. M. E. Zion Church, which includes Blue Ridge, Albemarle and Southeastern Virginia conference and one of this State.

They are charged with burning the A. M. E. Zion Church, Hopkins chapel, on College street, about four years ago.

Warrants for all the negroes concerned, including the leading negro concerned, including the leading negro element of the city, were issued and all the local men were arrested at once.

It is is claimed that the burned church was insured for $2,000 some time prior to the fire. It was condemned by the city. Shortly after the condemnation, the trustees of the church, of which all the defendants with the exception of the bishop are members, took out additional insurance of $8,000 bringing the total insurance of $10,000. Two months later, following a big fish fry at the church, the building burned. Since that time a splendid church building, costing about $18,000 has been erected on the site of the burned building.

AN INVITING LUNCH.

Deviled Crabs and Clam Chowder, From Rammel's Cafe, Discussed About Noon.

The culniary skill displayed at the Rammel Hotel is well known, as the eatables prepared at this well-known and popular place would appeal to the inhabitants of Mount Olympus. The proprietors have long enjoyed a reputation for serving fried oysters, and the manner in which they prepare summer viands is equally appealing.

About lunch time today a bountiful supply of deviled crabs, together with a steaming bowl of clam chowder, and all the accompaniments were received in this office from this cafe, which were greatly enjoyed by all who ate of them. These seasonable delicacies are to be obtained at Rammels.

Death of Phillip S. Beckham.

Gordonsville, Va., July 16.—Phillip S. Beckham, died at his home on King street, this city, on Tuesday morning about 2:30 o'clock after an illness of several months, with kindeny trouble. He was in the 76th year of his age, having been born in Harper's Ferry, West Virginia, August 6, 1838, and was the son of John T. Beckham, who was the first man killed in the John Brown insurrection, while he was guarding a railroad bridge at that place. Mr. Beckham was perhaps the oldest member, both in age and membership, of Waddell Lodge, No. 228, a member of the Royal Arch Masonic Lodge of Orange.

PROHIBITIONISTS FAST AND PRAY

Over One Hundred Leagues in State Held Exercises Yesterday.

ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

Exercises Held in Several Places in Richmond—Open Air Gatherings Prominent Features.

Richmond, July 16.—Yesterday was a day of fasting and prayer for prohibition by leagues all over the State of Virginia of the Women's Prohibition League of America, and hundreds of women who are working to advance the cause of prohibition, took part in the exercises at their respective headquarters. While programs, including addresses by advocates of prohibition, prayers, and appropriate musical numbers, were observed at all the gatherings, the most elaborate, perhaps, was that of the exercises at 15 South Third street, headquarters of the W. P. L. A. in Richmond.

Prayer and praise and meditation began at the Richmond headquarters at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and continued until 5:45 o'clock in the evening. The fasting of the women taking part began hours before, none of the participants in the day's exercise having eaten since Tuesday night. No food was taken until after the close of the session.

"Religion in the Home" was the theme of an address made at the Richmond headquarters meeting, when the service began yesterday morning. The speaker was Mrs. J. L. Wiltshire. Other speakers and their topics during the earlier hours of the day were: Mrs. Wiley Duke, who spoke on "Faith;" Miss Emma Davies, on 'Love;" Mrs. S. P. Rowland, on "Consecration," and Mrs. Keesee, on "The Efficiency of Prayer."

Miss Cornell Cain sang two solos during the day.

Among the speakers during the later hours were Mrs. J. S. Perdue, Mrs. John Lindsay and Mrs. H. O. Hester.

A series of weekly open-air meetings will be continued through the campaign on the old Ford Hotel lot.

MINISTER IS SUED.

Norfolk, Va., July 16.—Colonel A. B. Williams, editor of the Roanoke Times, has brought suit for slander against the Rev. B. Lacy Hope, pastor of Spurgeon Memorial Baptist Church, this city. The suit grew out of statements made by the minister in a sermon he preached last Sunday night.

The preacher attacked a report made by Editor Williams on conditions in Georgia under prohibition. He is said to have charged that Col. Williams was a paid representative of the liquor interest and made other statemnts that the Roanoke editor declares false.

Colonel Williams came to Norfolk yesterday intending to bring action for criminal libel against Rev. Mr. Hoke, but his lawyers advised him to sue for slander.

CROKER NOT COMING.

Denies Report he Will Try to Oust Murphy from Tammany.

Dublin, July 16.—Richard Croker emphatically denies the reports that he intended to go to New York in September to take up the fight to oust Charles F. Murphy as leader of Tammany Hall.

"I certainly will not re-enter politics," said the former Tammany chief. "I am not even sure whether I will go to New York at all this fall. I did not go last year, although the rumor was spread there that I was coming.

"The fact is, I am beginning to feel my age, and although my general health is good, the prospect of a long journey does not appeal to me."

MINISTER RESIGNS

Dr. Price Whipped Youth by Mistake and Causes Uproar. . .

Philadelphia, July 16.—The Rev. Dr. William Price, for 20 years rector of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church, Frankford, has tendered his resignation to the vestry, to take effect on August 1.

The pastor's retirement was prompted by the commotion caused by his administering a whipping to 19-year-old William W. Hazlett, a member of his congregation, under the impression that the boy's father had sent him to be chastised.

Young Hazlett is the son of Police Sergeant Hazlett, of the Belgrade Station. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hazlett are memebrs of St. Stephen's congregation and Mr. Hazlett admits that he had previously suggested to the clergyman to give the boy a whipping for some misdeed. Young Hazlett, however, says he went to Dr. Price to procure his influence in getting a position in the Bridesburg Arsenal. Instead of getting the clergyman's assistance, he received a whipping.

Dr. Price denies this portion of the boy's story and says he only gave him a slight trouncing, believing he was following the suggestion of the boy's father.

News came from the registration polls in Topeka, Kans., to Philadelphia that caused the anti-suffragists to chuckle at what they said was "the weakness of feminine logic" and made the suffragists frown incredulously. Far Western politicians lament that women voters don't want to tell their real ages and are refusing to register for the August State primaries rather than do so.

Bruin Cares for Baby.

Fifield, Wis., July 16.—An old black bear and her two cubs played the part of mother and playmates for baby Ball, the 2-year-old son of a farmer living near Fifield, Monday. The little boy was found nestling up close to the cubs in their brush bed, hidden in a patch of briars. He had disappeared from his home two days ago, and a country-wide search had been carried on to find him.

"The big doggies play, but baby's hungry," was the greeting the little fellow gave the men who found him.

The child was starving apparently, but was not suffering from exposure. It was evident that he had been kept alive by the warmth of the bear's bodies.

The child wandered from home Sunday. A patch of cloth from the blue rompers he wore was found today on a bush near the roadside. Investigation disclosed the bears' den and the child.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

Work of Double-Tracking Southern Railway Being Pushed.

Atlanta, Ga., July 16.—The Southern Railway has awarded a contract for the construction of a new double track cut off line between Danville, Va., and Dry Fork, Va., 12.95 miles, to Robert Russell, who will have headquarters at Danville, Va.

This construction will involve a change of turn for the entire distance and will include double track bridge across the Dan River.

The new line will eliminate a heavy grade and much curvature, and is an important line in the work of securing a double track line between Atlanta and Washington, which President Harrison plans to complete in the next five years."

ELECTION TODAY IN RICHMOND

Spirited Contest for Places on Administrative Board.

EXPECT LARGE VOTE

Chief of Water Department Charged with Attempted Intimidation in Interest of Candidates.

Richmond, July 16.—Between sunrise and sunset today the voters of the city will elect two men from a field of five candidates to vacancies on the Administrative Board, caused by the expiration of the terms of John Hirchberg and Carlton McCarthy on December 31. All five aspirants last night expressed confidence in the result.

The last day of the campaign was without incident. John D. Blair addressed a crowd of 200 in Liberty Hall, Church Hill, at 9 o'clock last night, and reiterated his general that the board has indicated its unfitness to handle the expenditure of the city's funds by its unbusiness-like methods in awarding the road oil, lamp pole, Feltig house and other contracts. His indictments was echoed by former Mayor Richard M. Taylor and A. E. Watts, who preceded Mr. Blair on the speaking program.

Former Councilman C. E. Richards, who attended the Blair rally by request, explained to the gathering that he was present solely for the purpose of repeating the statement he made at the Hobson meeting Tuesday night, namely, that he had been threatened with political death by James E. Dickerson because of his activities against Mr. Hirschberg, Dickerson's friend.

VIRGINIA POSTMASTERS

Nomination of Brown for Danville May End Long Fight.

Washington, July 16.—Among the nominations for postmasters sent to the Senate yesterday by President Wilson were the following for Virginia:

W. N. Brown, Danville; John W. Kellam, Onley; Thomas S. Burwell, Lexington, and Robert J. Worthington South Hill.

The nomination of Brown is regarded as the conclusion by compromise of the long fight which has been waged over this office between the Administration and the Virginia anti-machine faction on the one hand and Representative Saunders and the Virginia Senators on the other.

Attracted by the bright colors of fireworks known as Pharoah's serpents, Helen, fifteen-months-old child of David F. Lee, a prominent attorney at Norwich, N. Y., Tuesday night ate a quantity of them which had been left over from the family celebration of the Fourth. She died yesterday. The explosive contained sulpho-cyanide of mercury, a deadly poison.

SNAKE ON KING STREET.

Young Couple Encounter Orphidian While Engaged in Nocturnal Stroll.

While a young man and a young woman were walking on the south side of King street, between Fairfax and Royal streets, a few nights ago they saw a snake of the moccasin variety leisurely crawling in an easterly direction.

The young man gave chase, but the reptile was too nimble for him, and it entered the sewer at the corner, where it doubtless caused consternation among the rodents therein. The snake is represented to have been between four and five feet long.

There are several theories as to how it reached King street, the most plausible of which is that it crawled from a bunch of bananas.

3 TO 1 AGAINST SHAMROK IV.

Lloyds Underwriters Estimate the Challenger's Chances in Race.

Gosport, England, July 16.—Everything is ready for the departure on July 18 for the United States of the Shamrock IV., Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger for the America's cup. Her compasses have been adjusted and her ketch rig fitted. The steam yacht Erin is waiting to convoy her across the Atlantic.

"The Shamrock IV. has done all that has been asked of her," is the final word of Designer Charles E. Nicholson.

Lloyds underwriters are not so optimistic as Nicholson concerning the Shamrock IV.'s chances. Their estimate today was roughly 3 to 1 against the challenger. In other words, they are issuing policies at a 35 per cent premium to pay the total loss if the Shamrock IV. should prove successful.

LIGHTNING KILLS ONE

Roanoke, Va., July 16.—As a result of one of the severest electrical storms which ever struck Carroll County, Miss Sarah Shockley, 22 years old, the daughter of Claude Shockley, is dead, a child is in a critical condition and not expected to live, and another child is severely burned, a lightning bolt having struck the party of four, who were picking blackberries 200 yards from the Shockley home, four miles from Hillsville yesterday afternoon.

Miss Shockley, accompanied by three children, went out yesterday afternoon to gather blackberries. They saw the storm approaching, but thought they would have time to reach the home before it broke. When they had covered about half the distance, lightning commenced to play around the party, and one severe bolt struck Miss Shockley on the top of head, and took a course down her body, tearing great holes in the bottom of her feet. Her death was instantaneous.

When members of the family reached her, her clothing was in a blaze, and her body was horribly burned.

The three children were struck, and one of them was seriously injured, and is not expected to live, the lightning burning fearful holes in the bottom of her feet. A second child was badly burned about the face and head, and the third, a little boy, was stunned, but not rendered unconscious.

AUCTION SALE.

I will offer for sale on Saturday, July 25th, at 12 o'clock in front of the Market Building, the old brick house and lot situated at the southeast corner of Fairfax and Queen streets. The lots front 55 feet, 6 inches on Fairfax street, and 102 feet, 4 inches, on Quen street; thence south 27 feet, 9 inches; thence east 12 feet, 4 inches; thence north 83 feet, 3 inches to Queen street, thence to the beginning. This is an opportunity for a speculator as the material from the old brick house will go far toward building a row of houses on the lots which contain about 6000 feet of ground.

COMMISSIONERS MEET

Arrests Will be Made for Every Violation of Traffic Laws in Future.

Traffic of all kinds, including automobiles and motor cycles, must halt fifteen feet within the spot where the electric cars stop at King and Washington streets and King and Royal streets to let off passengers. This conclusion was reached by the board of police commissioners last night and the commissioners directed Chief Goods to see that the law on this subject is carried out. Officers will be stationed day and night at these crossings and arrests will be made for every violation.

On motion of Commissioner Knight, Secretary Shinn was authorized to have a new book of rules printed.

It was decided to have the annual inspection of the police force some time next month.

Commissioner Lawler took occasion to compliment the police for the efforts they have been making recently to enforce the laws.

On the absence of Mayor Fisher, Commissioner N. J. Lawler, presided and others present ewre: Secretary J. Edward Shinn, R. E. Knight and George H. Schwarzmann.

DECREE ENTERED

TUCKER FOR CABINET

New York World Mentions Virginian for Secretary of War Portfolio.

Richmond, July 16.—In the New York World of Tuesday there is a special telegram from Washington to the effect that President Wilson is considering the question of appointing Attorney General McReynolds to the Supreme Court bench to succeed Justice Lurton, deceased, and that Secretary of War Garrison would be moved up to the position now held by Mr. McReynolds.

The statement is also made by the same correspondent that the name of Harry St. George Tucker is being considered by President Wilson for the position of Secretary of War to succeed Mr. Garrison.

Mr. Tucker has for some time been making his home in Washington, and it is known that he is one of the closest political friends of the President, and was one of his warmest supporters when the campaign was on for the nomination. Mr. Tucker is a Virginian of the old school, has long been in public life and was for years in Congress. He was a candidate for Governor against Judge Mann and was defeated by a narrow margin after one of the hottest fights the State has witnessed.

MASONS IN BALL GAME

Andrew Jackson Lodge Defeats Washington Lodge by a Score of 11 to 6.

Two lodges of Masons played an interesting and exciting game of baseball at the Base Ball Park yesterday afternoon, and after two hours of bingles the man who kept the score said it was 11 to 6, in favor of Andrew Jackson Lodge, while the defeated lodge was Alexandria-Washington.

Nick Altrock who umpired, kept the crowd amused by his witticisms, being the life of the game, while many of the players falling on bases, injured their knees and soiled their white suits. They also perspired with regularity and had to be supplied with lemonade at frequent intervals.

Along about what was known as the seventh inning Henry and Moeller, of the Nationals, made their appearance.

Chief Goods, who was around the field got to the bat and he knocked a one-bagger and he accomplished some good sprinting.

Police Justice Caton knocked many flies and also got his share of fouls.

Dingerfield was used as substitute pitcher by Alexandria-Washington Lodge.

Blumenfeld pitched hard for Alexandria-Washington Lodge ,and Wade did the honors for the Andrew Jackson. Hoffman and Latham were the catchers for Andrew Jackson with Foster as catcher for Alexandria-Washington Lodge.

Howland Gary, who struck the ball once or twice, journeyed all the way from Boston for this purpose and was taken for Moeller at times by those on the grand stand.

Mayor Fisher entertained the Washington visitors at the conclusion of the game.

HUERTA MAKES HIS EXIT.

Victoriano Huerta, so-called President, but self-constituted dictator of Mexico since February 19, 1913, has finally yielded ti pressure and resigned. In the official announcement it was gradiloquently stated that in resigning Huerta was actuated by the highest motives of patriotism and in compliance with his supreme duty to his country. Francisco Carbajal, Huerta's minister, has taken the oath as Provisional President.

The members of Huerta's cabinet resigned with him.

The families of Huerta, Fuentes and Paredes have left Mexico City, and Huerta will not tarry long.

The passing of Huerta will be hailed with delight by all lovers of law and order in the civilized world. This adventurer, ready to wade through seas of blood in order to gratify his ambition, has been allied with every disorderly leader in Mexico for some time, and during his career he has sold out every one who has confided in him. It looks as though he will escape falling into the hands of Villa, who has vowed to treat him as he has treated others during the past two years, should he succeed in capturing him.

The elimination of Huerta, however, does not assure peace in Mexico, although his departure is likely to clear the atmosphere somewhat.

BOARD TAKES PROPER COURSE.

The action of the Richmond Board of Aldermen in refusing to concur in the action of the Common Council in appropriating $3,000 for the purpose of instituting a survey of the disorderly district in the State capital, proposed by a special vice commission, has put an effectual check upon the movement.

Alderman Puller very sensibly observed that such an investigation would disclose nothing not already known, while it would unfavorably advertise Richmond. He failed to see what good would result from the movement.

There is much money spent in large cities at different times in throwing vice upon the screen. Such procedures accomplish nothing toward effectually improving conditions, but simply stir up cesspools, which might be let alone, or kept within safe boundaries.

Many years ago a prominent minister of the gospel in New York, doubtless animated by a sense of duty, visited certain sections of that city, entering dives and other resorts, for the purpose of showing the people of the city what was going on. He, too, failed to exhume anything that was not already known and it was subsequently admitted that this well-meaning man had done more harm than good. The vivid descriptions he gave of the underground world were read with avidity by young persons who never dreamed such temples of sensuality existed, and, unfortunately, a certain percentage of them, overburdened with curiosity, went to see for themselves.

There is in every city people ready to manifest an enthusiastic desire to spend public money. Richmond is opening her eyes to this needless waste, and recently decided to be careful hereafter in appropriating funds for the entertainment of members of the many State conventions which gather there.

Averse to Vice Commission.

Richmond, July 16.—Failing to concur in the action of the Common Council ,which passed the measure by a unanimous vote, the Board of Aldermen last night killed the joint resolution appropriating $3,000 to defray the expenses of the commission appointed by Mayor Ainslie to investigate and report upon the vice situation in this city. The resolution polled eight affirmative votes and six in the negative, failing for want of the two-thirds vote required for measures carrying appropriations.

Alderman Puller, of Clay Ward, led a sharp attack on the resolution holding that an expenditure of $3,000 to investigate vice would be a flagrant waste of the city's money. If it was felt that a report on Richmond conditions were desirable, he said, the municipal Police Department was abundantly able to prepare such a report and at no additional expense to the city.

After shooting and seriously wounding his wife yesterday on a street corner in Wilmington, N. C., Everett Brice, 35 years old, Atlantic Coast Line switchman, ran into a nearby yard and finding that he was likely to be surrounded by officers, shot himself through the head, dying instantly. Brice and his wife had not been living together for some time. For several days he had been pleading with her to live with him again, it is reported, but she had refused. It is supposed that this was the cause of the shooting. The woman will recover.

Secretary of State Bryan comes out with an editorial in the Commoner announcing his support of equal suffrage. The right of women to vote in Nebraska will be determined at the elections to be held in November.

E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS' UNUSUAL OFFER.

Sell Dr. Howard's Specific at Half Price and Guarantee a Cure.

"It is not often that we have faith enough in the medicine put up by othe people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said E. S. Leadbeater & Sons to a Gazette man, who dropped into their store," but we are glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that basis.

"The Dr. Howard Company in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorizes us to sell their regular fifty cent bottles at half price, 25 cents and, although we have sold a lot of it, and have guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory.

"We are still selling the specific at half price, although we cannot tell how long we shall be able to do so, and anyone who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played out condition, ought to take advantage of this chance. You can tell your readers that if they are not satisfied with the specific that they can come right back to our store and we will cheerfully refund their money."

WARNING AGAINST PROHIBITION LAW

Statewide Measure Would Affect Only People Who Do Not Desire It.

WOULD IGNORE LOCAL WILL.

Association For Local Self Government Declares Proposed Law Subversive of American Principles.

Richmond, July 16,— "The only part of the State that can be affected at all by a State-wide prohibition law is the part that does not want it, and the proposition is to force the law upon it against its will by the power of the State."

In these words the Virginia Association for Local Self Government, in a statement issued today, sums up its case against the enabling act which the voters of the State will be asked to ratify at the special election to be held next September. It declares the proposed law to be in conflict with the principle of local self government which forms the cornerstone of American institutions.

The statement continues with this exposition of the issue:

"The State-wide law is designed to prohibit the sale of liquor. It could produce no change whatever in nine-tenths of the State since eighty-five of the 100 counties in Virginia already prohibit the sale by the use of the present local option law. The remaining counties could also have prohibition if a majority of their citizens favored it, by exercising the same law.

"Some of these remaining counties have already voted against prohibition. showing that they do not want it. It is now proposed to force prohibition upon them against their will, by the power of the State. They are not to have the same right that the 'dry' counties had of deciding this question for themselves in their own way.

"The local option law, now in force, was designed to prevent the wet counties from imposing their will on the counties that wanted to be 'dry.' The same reason exists why the the 'dry' counties should not force their will upon those who do not desire prohibition.

"It is a well-established principle of Democratic government, that government is derived from the consent of the governed—that only those should vote on a law who can be affected by its passage. The ratification of the enabling act would not affect the dry counties in the least, yet the vote of the dry counties in the coming election will help determine the issue in counties where prohibition would be unwelcome. This is manifestly unfair and against the principle of local self government which is the corner-stone of our institutions.

"The experience of years in Maine and elsewhere has demonstrated that prohibition cannot be enforced where local sentiment, and therefore the local government, are against it. To enact a law is one thing and to inforce it is another. When local sentiment is against a law the State government is powerless to inforce it. There arises at once a conflict of authority, a wholesale violation of law, a prohibition that does not prohibit, and the substitution of innumerable lawless dives for the comparatively few well-regulated places of the old order.

"To summarize: The voters in nine-tenths of the State have no direct moral interest whatever in the passage or defeat of the prohibition law since their condition will remain exactly as it is now whichever way the election results. In the remaining one-tenth of the State where an anti-prohibition majority prevails, the passage of the law would force upon them an obnoxius system which, without advancing the cause of prohibition or temperance, would make conditions infinitely worse.

"The enabling act attempts to substitute centralized force for local self-government. It proposes to substitute in Virginia for the local option system which has worked admirably and demonstrated its worth, a dangerous experiment which has nowhere succeeded and which no less than sixteen States have abandoned after disastrous experiences with it. It proposes, moreover, to do all this at a tremendous expense and incalculable loss and damage to the Commonwealth. For these reasons the law should be overwhelmingly defeated next September.—Adv.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?

When relief from rheumatic pains may be had at so small a cost it is surprising that anyone should fail to avail himself of it. Joseph Copparelli, Canastota, N. Y., suffered intensely with pains due to rheumatism in his limbs for a long time A friend told him about Chamberlain's Liniment. One application relieved him wonderfully, and a few days' treatment effected a cure. Many others have found quick relief by applying this liniment. For sale by all dealers.

TRAIN KILLS AGED NEGRO.

Darkey Caught on Trestle Near Milton Falls as he Runs.

Danville, Va., July 16.—Daniel Davis, a sixty-five year old negro was struck and killed on Saturday evening near Milton by train No. 4, of the Atlantic and Danville road, which was running speedily behind schedule from Norfolk to Danville. The engineer could not see the negro until he was almost upon him and efforts to stop the train and warn the negro failed. The darkey, who was making his way by foot from Sutherlin to Milton to visit relatives there, had gained the short trestle and was half way across it when the train hove into view. Apparently he did not hear the train but when the blast of warning reached him he started to run in order to reach the other end of the trestle. Infirm of foot he stumbled and fell across the metals and the pilot of the engine violently struck his head and pitched him into a gulley.

ON BREAD AND WATER DIET.

Youthful I. W. W. Leader Promises to be Good Hereafter.

New York, July 16.—A bread and water diet for 130 hours and a cement floor for a bed, brought promises of good behavior from Frank Tannenbaum, the youthful Industrial Workers of the World leader, and today Warden Hayes, of the Blackwells Island penitentiary, promised to end his stay in the solitary confinement cells. Tannenbaum who was sent to the island for raiding a church, was one of the ring-leaders in the recent riots.

While the number of insurgents has decreased by about a score, more than 100 were still holding out today for their "rights." All of these remained in their cells. They include the leaders of the insurgens, all of whom are in solitary confinement.

INVITED TO BALTIMORE.

Askd to Participate in Star Spangled Banner Centennial.

Richmond, July 16.—Every military organization in the State of Virginia has been invited by the city of Baltimore to participate in the Star Spangled Banner Centennial, which is to be celebrated there from September 6 to 13, inclusive. The invitation was received yesterday by Adjutant General W. W. Sale, and General Charles E. Macklin, of Baltimore, chairman of the Centenary Commission, will visit the State encampment at Gordonsville next week to personally request the militiamen to join in the great event.

The affair will mark the 100th anniversary of the composition of the great national anthem, which was written by Francis Scott Key while a prisoner on a British war vessel during the bombardment of Fort McHenry, one of the principal defenses of Baltimore of that day. It is planned to have a gigantic military parade on the exact date, a century later, to do honor to the author of the celebrated song.

General Sale, as well as Governor Stuart, is extremely anxious to see a large representation from Virginia.

Maintaining his innocence, Arthur Tillman, 22 years old, was hanged in the jail yard at Paris, Ark., yesterday for the murder of his sweetheart, Amanda Stephens, 19 years old, whose body was found in an abandoned well at Delaware, Ark., last March.

Announcement was made yesterday in Philadelphia that the vote cast yesterday by the motormen and conductors of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company resulted in the men deciding to continue for another year the present co-operative plan, by which the men deal as individuals with the company, farther than through a labor organization. About 6,500 men are involved.

CERTIFICATE DECREASING THE OUTSTANDING COMMON CAPITAL STOCK OF POTOMAC AND CRESAPEAKE STEAMBOAT COMPANY.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY as follows:

(1) That, at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Potomac and Chesspeake Steamboat Company, properly convened and held at Washington, D. C., on May 28th, 1914, the following resolution was unanimously adopted, to wit:

"RESOLVED THAT, when and as soon as the amendment to the charter of this company authorizing the reduction of the par value of all of the authorized common stock from One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) to Ten Dollars ($10.00) per share is obtained, this company reduce its outstanding common capital stock by issuing and delivering one share of its common stock, of the par value of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per share in exchange for each one share of its outstanding common stock, of the par value of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per share, to the end that its present outstanding common capital stock, of a total par value of Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000.00) may be reduced to a total outstanding comon capital stock of the par value of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00).

"AND BE IT RESOLVED FURTHER, that the President and Secretary of this company be and they are hereby authorized, empowered and instructed to do any and all things which may be deemed proper to carry out the full intention of this resolution."

(2) That at a meeting of the Stockholders of the said corporation, duly and properly convened and held at Alexandria, Virginia, on June 9th, 1914, the resolution heretofore set forth was, in terms, also unanimously adopted, more than two-thirds (2-3) in interest of the stockholders voting in favor thereof.

(3) That the said resolution appears on the minutes of the said Directors' meeting and on the minutes of the said Stockholders' meeting.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF this certificate is executed by Colin H. Livingstone, the President of the said Potomac and Chesapeake Steamboat Company, under the seal of the said corpiration, attested by Paul Dulaney, the Secretary of the said corporation, this the 13th day of June, 1914.

Cured of Indigestion.

Mrs. Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes. "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's Tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." For sale by all dealers.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE
And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.
